Top Attorney

University of Maryland at College Park in 1997. She earned her Juris Doctorate from American University, Washington College of Law in 2001. In law school, she was awarded the Peggy Brown Scholarship and served as the Co-Editor of American's Health Law News. She is licensed to practice in Maryland, Texas and the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas.

Having practiced law for well over a decade, Talbot's tenacity, focus, and dedication has enabled her to obtain successful results for her clients in state and federal courts. She currently works at Thompson & Reilly, P.C., representing corporations and insurance companies across the United States. Her practice focuses on products liability, insurance coverage, indemnity claims, personal injury defense and commercial litigation matters.

Talbot has always had a strong work ethic. Prior to working at Thompson & Reilly, she worked for two years as a law clerk for the Honorable Mary Ellen Abrecht of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia. She also worked for the late Senator Edward M. Kennedy, for AARP, and for the nonprofit organization, RESULTS.

In addition to her successful law career, Talbot has always been a strong believer of giving back to the community. She is often donating her time and service to various organizations. Currently, she serves as the President of the Spouses of Houston Barristers, an organization whose focus is to award exceptional law students scholarships in the Houston area. She is also a member of the Downtown Women's Group, the Maryland Bar Association and the Houston Lawyers Association. She is also a former editorial board member of the Houston Lawyer Magazine and former board member of the nonprofit, Education-N-Hoops, Inc.
